

Teacher Bio

Presenting Connie Ahalt

Connie Ahalt is a long-time Unitic, having found her first Unity church in 1988 while living in Virginia Beach, Virginia. She began attending and joined Atlanta Unity in 1998 and has been active in leadership roles ever since. She is the facilitator for the Women's Circle, frequent meditator from the platform, and currently leading The Ten Ministry Team, an inspired group of people who will take our household of faith on a visioning experience for our future.

She has taught various classes at AU, including "Mission: Possible," an original seminar designed that results in each participant creating their personal mission statement, values and life success factors. She taught the books, "The Power of Appreciation" and "Power, Freedom and Grace." Plans are in the works for a class on Sufi poetry, featuring the works of Rumi and Hafiz.

She is a corporate professional with Coca-Cola Enterprises, Inc. working in technology and has her own business, Brave Spirit Seminars, LLC.

Connie brings creativity, insight and Unity fundamentals to her classes, Expect to hear music, do experiential exercises, and engage in thought provoking dialogue. Along the way, you will make a good friend in Connie as she values and cherishes all of her participants.
